

Fundraising Agreement

Thank you for your interest in raising donations for the Lone Survivor Foundation. By doing so you are assisting us in our efforts to restore, empower and renew hope for our wounded warriors and their families through health, wellness, and therapeutic support.

To help you succeed, we established the following guidelines for your event:

Fundraising Guidelines for Non-profit Organizations

The tax law of 1993 requires donors be supplied with information about the tax-deductible portion of the event fee, ticket price or purchased items. This is calculated by deducting the fair market value of the goods or services guests receive from the ticket price or items purchased at the event (e.g. silent auction items). This will help your donors with their tax records.

The acceptance of your event or project gives your organization approval to state that your event will benefit the Lone Survivor Foundation. The Foundation reserves the right to review all promotional materials prior to use.

Fundraising Guidelines

- Fundraising event must be financially self-sustaining without contribution or financial risk for the Lone Survivor Foundation. The Foundation does not offer funding to assist with fundraising efforts, thus money needed for expenses (space rental, deposits, etc.) must be supplied by the party offering the fundraising activity.

Sponsorship

- The Lone Survivor Foundation cannot solicit sponsors for your fundraising event and does not provide any donor or recipient contact information.
- Companies with public images that would have the potential to compromise the integrity of the Lone Survivor Foundation or conflict with the Foundation's mission, vision or values may not be the major or presenting sponsors and may not promote their products through advertising or other event exposure.

Promotion and Logo Usage

- The Lone Survivor Foundation must review and approve all promotional materials prior to production or distribution including, but not limited to, press releases, invitations, brochures, letters, and flyers.
- The official logo will become a registered trademark, and cannot be legally reproduced without written permission. Additionally, the Lone Survivor Foundation logo must be used appropriately in conjunction with the event and must not be altered in any way. (See Logo Use Agreement Form).
- Any promotional materials must clearly state that your event is raising funds that will benefit the Lone Survivor Foundation.
- The LSF may promote your event, when appropriate, by displaying it on our website, in our newsletters, and in our tax deduction/donor acknowledgement documentation.
- The Foundation Tax ID is 27-1850918.
- These statements must be on all advertisement and flyers for all events
- The Foundation will assist all volunteers with writing the statements.
- Return the completed application and supporting documents to the foundation via email amy@lonesurvivorfoundation.org or mail them to 108 N. Houston Bullard, TX 75757
